WHAT THEY NEEDED

Expert Event Production

Our client sought a Production partner who could provide invaluable advice throughout the event planning process, helping them make informed decisions on AV solutions to reach their goals. Moreover, such an expert would be able to handle changes and additions that may arise during pre-event planning as well as onsite.

Creative Direction

Our client sought expert guidance to create a unified look for their event and an engaging custom video highlighting the award winner. To top it off, they requested professional scenic design that would set the perfect backdrop - all of which we provided with impressive results!

WHAT WE PROVIDED

Support Throughout the Planning Process

- We worked with the clients throughout the planning process to guide them along the way, meeting weekly to discuss production details to make sure every detail was thought of ahead of time, lending our expertise where needed, and making adjustments as changes came up.
- Creative services included slide animations to give their awards presentations a pop as well as we sent a team onsite to record and create a video for their Top Driver award.
- We provided three creative backdrop options for their team to select from their event. We went with a custom look with sails and sand-colored carpet to create a unique backdrop for their stage presentations that went with the Amelia Island vibe.
